

Be a Get On the Bus Workplace!

Here are some ways to implement an education-friendly philosophy in your workplace.

- Host school supply and/or back to school clothing drive.
- Hold a book drive. Pick a school to benefit.
- Give employees time to volunteer, attend a conference, field trip or performance at school.
- Host students at your business to introduce students to workplace practices and careers.
- Implement a voluntary payroll deduction to support education.
- Have employees participate in career days at various school levels.
- Provide volunteer or paid work experiences for high school students
- Provide employees opportunity for their own learning.
- Partner your company with a school on particular projects.
- Promote License for Learning by purchasing an Education Foundation tag for your company.
- Ask staff members to monitor online teacher requests and look for ways to support classrooms.
- Participate as a company team in the Take Stock in Children's Strides for Education 5K Walk/Run.

Benefits

- Certificate for display in your business.
- GOTB workplace logo can be used on your website, email signatures, business cards, etc.
- Fosters a sense of community and civic responsibility which attracts and retains high quality employees.
- Provides a sense of empowerment and flexibility for employees.
- Business perceived as a more desirable place to work.

Yes, I would like to be a Get On the Bus Workplace.

Visit www.GetOnTheBus.org/Workplace

